Love & Perfection Series

Once upon a time there was a young girl who enjoyed everything there was to be enjoyed. She loved the clouds, the rain, the sky the sea. Oh yes, dear friends, this young girl admired all things natural. We say 'natural' because this is true. Natural as opposed to unnatural, you appreciate. And what were the unnatural things she did not love?

Those things contrived by the nature of man are things unnatural. And this we say to you:

Love the natural, the unspoiled, the true. And what is true? This is a simple question with a simple answer.

We are consciousness. We are consciousness having an experience. When the experience ends we have another experience and another and another, you get the drift!

We do not have experiences to gain wisdom, as such; unless it is the wisdom to overcome our natural state of negativity.

There is not a hierarchy of sorts; unless you assume those who have overcome/circumnavigated their innate negativity to be of a, shall we say, advanced state of being.

The, so called, messengers of God is simply another experience within the multitude of experiences available for experiencing. We shall all have what we call a grandiose experience within each fantasy we contribute to and enjoy.

We do not become spirit; we are spirit or consciousness. We do not have a body; we are consciousness only.

When we depart (so called) an experience we do not linger in a dimension, nor do we return to a dimension. We are eternally within a particular dimension; i.e., consciousness.

Those having the experience of being a medium, spiritual soothsayer, etc., are having just one of the multitudes of experiences open to all. The accountant, the bricklayer, the doctor, the nun; all experiences open for all.

We enjoy the concepts we have created for our enjoyment. However, as of a recent event we are now to change our experience. And to what are we changing?

Love and Perfection, dear friends; shall be and is the change long awaited for by many.

To learn about this, and many other happenings, we invite you to visit our websites:

Love & Perfection Series – Part 1

We Are Consciousness

We are Consciousness. Indeed, Dear Hearts, we are consciousness. We each are a consciousness intermingling, and enjoying each other's company.

It wasn't always so, Dear Hearts. No, we did not always enjoy each other's company. No we did not.

And why did we not enjoy each other's company? We did not enjoy each other's company, Dear Ones, nor did we enjoy our own company.

Surprised? Yes indeed; as above so below; as the saying goes.

This is true, Dear Hearts. We did not enjoy life, or consciousness until some of us realised we needed to change. This took a great deal of courage; a great deal of courage and a good deal of determination. And why was this?

This was so, Dear Hearts, because many did not agree. This is so, Dear Ones. Many rathered remain bound to their limited thinking. This was so, Dear Ones; once again; as above so below.

The Earth Fantasy is a parody of our beginnings, Dear Ones. We say this so as you will begin to have an understanding of the basis for the Earth Fantasy.

It was created to remind us of the angst, fussing and fighting of our earliest beginnings.

Many are still fussing and fighting, Dear Hearts. And why is this so? This is as it is because, for them, the Earth Fantasy is one where we, consciousness, can achieve perfection.

Yes, Dear Hearts, you have been here many, many times over many millennia enjoying the fantasy in its myriad forms. The purpose, Dear One: To achieve perfection as a consciousness.

Oh yes, Dear Hearts; we have created many and varied physical forms by which to achieve perfection. However, the physical form known as ‘man’ guarantees perfection for those who have, not only determination, but, endurance by their side.

To learn more of this we invite you to read our free books, which can be found upon our website: ABC of Spirit Talk

Part 2. The Light Worker's Creed.

And on we go, dearest, on to part two of our new programme. We say 'programme', dearest, as there will be a number of posts in this series. Our hope is to enlighten all who wish to be enlightened in regard our lives as consciousness.

As written in the first post, Dear Hearts (We Are Consciousness), we are on a mission; a mission to bring all who have agreed, to a greater appreciation of their role. For those who choose to learn more we invite you to read our Free Books; available upon our websites.

In our free books are the keys to remembering. This is why, Dear Ones, we choose to remind you of them. For some the remembering will be instant; for others there will be a need to read and reread the information in order for it to become assimilated; this is true, Dear Hearts. No matter in which order you find yourself, the reading will be of benefit to you. Light Worker you are, Dear One: Light Worker you will always be!

And this is that which we shall speak upon within this post. The Light Worker's Creed.

As a Light Worker you have agreed (loosely, so to speak) to, within this lifetime, remember. And what have you chosen to remember? You have agreed to remember who you are. This may, as we have stated, be an instantaneous event; it may take some time, reading, pondering and adjusting your attitude, Dear Heart; this is true. However, because this is an agreement you have made before entering the fantasy; this will be done at some point within your journey, or lifetime.

And what will you remember?

You will remember that you, as a consciousness, are perfect. You will have a sense of knowing that your mission is to become all that you can be; i.e. without fear, or; perfect. You will also know, Dear One, that your mission will not be easy; nor is it meant to be.

You will remember that; as you and others are becoming perfect you will, unconsciously, radiate a 'lack of fear'. This lack of fear will heighten the energies wherever you go, Dear Heart. This is how the new fantasy of Love & Perfection is to become tangible, so to speak. Like the domino effect; all within your vicinity will be raised.

As you remember this, your energy, or vibration, will also be raised. You will find others enjoying your presence more and more.

Can you not imagine a vast army of Light Workers going about their day to day tasks radiating the higher, or finer (to be more correct) energies? Yes, dear Light Workers; your mission is to become all that you are, which is perfect. And how is this to be achieved?

By ridding yourself of all fear, Dear Ones. This is your mission.

Many Blessings, Dear Ones, Many Blessings

Part 3. The Releasement of Fear

We have spoken of this many times, over the past few years, Dear Ones: "The releasement of fear."

For this, Dear Hearts, as mentioned in our last post (The Light Worker's Creed), is your mission to which you agreed before entering the fantasy.

And how are fears released?

This is an easy question to answer. Fear is released firstly by becoming aware that fear is present.

Some may see this as an easy equation. However, Dear Ones, this is not always the case. No, Dear Hearts; fear does not succumb so easily; no indeed.

What is meant by this, Dear Ones, is that fear is a past master of disguise. Yes indeed, this is true. And why is this? We shall tell you: This is as we have arranged, Dear Heart. Did we say releasing fear was to be easy? No we did not.

Our dearest smiles within as she dutifully types the words we relay. Indeed, our dearest knows, from first hand experience, the tricks and subtleties by which fear lives. Oh yes, Dear One, fear lives and breathes, conquers and controls your thoughts.

You think this is not the case? Yes? No? Indeed, dear brave hearts; with further investigation and an open mind you will indeed find this is the case. Fear is the number one energy with which we have imbued man. He is eternally subject to fear; until he isn't.

Confused? Some are confused, whilst others are not. This is good, Dear Hearts; this is good. Whilst ever confusion reigns there is the possibility of change.

And this is what is needed if fear is to be recognised as the number one energy with which man is imbued.

Many Blessings, Dear Ones, Many Blessings

Part 4. Maintaining a Lack of Fear

Whilst ever we are harbouring negatives, there will be fear. Oh yes, dear friends, negatives are a constant value of fear. And how do we remove the negatives? We remove the negatives, Dear Ones, by recognising firstly: They are fear.

Until we receive this understanding, Dear Hearts, as mentioned in our previous post, we will be subject to fear ad-infinitum; this is true. And what is a negative? Once again, Dear Ones, this is an easy question to answer.

A negative is opposite to a positive. And what is a positive? Why, anything that is not a negative is a positive. We shall explain: You, Dear Heart, are imbued with fear; this being an attribute of the fantasy of man. As such your every thought is tinged with this energy.

When you can recognise this truth you are on your way to overcoming; this is true, Dear One:

When you can recognise the truth of fear you are on your way to overcoming.

We repeat ourselves, Dear Hearts, so as the truth can become embedded within your consciousness. Without this truth you are subject to the truth of fear being the number one energy with which you are imbued.

Simple is the truth, Dear One. Not so simple is the method of overcoming.

There are many and varied avenues to take, in the reduction and eventual overcoming of fear. Firstly comes recognition. Secondly comes a desire to be without the energy of fear. And thirdly, Dear Heart, comes repetition – repetition of your desire to recognise the energy of fear, and repetition of your desire to overcome.

This may seem a simple remedy and, in truth, this is a simple formula for success. However, Dear One, to maintain this simple formula will require every ounce of desire you can muster; coupled with a desire that can be maintained until you have 'broken fear's back', so to speak.

Our dearest Carolyn can attest to this simple equation as being her life saver; indeed she can.

Yes, this is true. I can report that, these days, there is very little effort required for me to maintain positive thinking; I even find it difficult to dwell upon the negative. I believe the first port of call for me was objectivity. To explain:

The world is full of negatives. It is impossible to be insulated from the negatives and remain cognizant of worldly events without fear, causing alarm, within the mind; this was the case for me. Therefore, I realised I needed to adopt an attitude that would protect me from the negatives.

You, The Collective Consciousness (The C.C.) taught me to 'see' the negatives, but, remain objective. This was to become a wonderful formula for me. It allowed me to be a part of the world, but not of the negative values within the world. Today I can read a newspaper or listen to the world news without being affected by the negative structures.

Are you saying, dearest, that you are free from the affects of the negative aspect of life as a human experiencing?

Yes, I believe that is what I am saying.

And this took time, dearest?

Yes, it absolutely took time and a great deal of work to achieve.

Work, dearest?

As you've said; it takes a great desire to be without fear, plus a constant monitoring of the inherent capacity for fearful thoughts; in order to prevent ones self from being affected by them. Then, as you've said, there is a tipping point into a new value, so to speak. Once this point has been achieved comes an almost inability to entertain the negative. It is as though the brain cannot respond; it is changed.

And to what is it changed, dearest?

It is hard to find the words. Suffice to say I am not affected by the negative. I see the negative; however, I cannot dwell upon it or entertain it. It is as if it doesn't exist, even though I know it does and that others are affected; I remain untouched, so to speak.

We know this is true for you, dearest.

Many Blessings, Dear Hearts, Many Blessings

Part 5. Perfection as a Human Experiencing

Our dearest reports a sense of well-being at concluding our series, Dear Ones. However, we are here to report that our series is just at its beginnings. This surprises our dearest; yes indeed it does. Our dearest Carolyn wonders to where we shall proceed; having given the understanding of the inherent fear man possesses, and the manner in which to eradicate fear.

Dearest, we lead you forward, so to speak, to the next chapter in our work. Once again, Dear Hearts, our dearest is a little befuddled by our words. We shall explain:

It is not only necessary, for those whose wish is to eradicate fear from their thinking; it is imperative to appreciate why this is to be achieved.

As we have spoken; the Earth Fantasy is evolving, Dear Ones. And to what is it evolving? For those who have been following our dearest's writings you will be aware that the Earth Fantasy is evolving to a Fantasy that shall, as its base, be a Fantasy whereby Love and Perfection will reign. This shall require the Light Workers of the World attaining that which is their mission. That is, creating within themselves the state of perfection, or, in more simple terms, Dear Hearts; a state whereby fear is no longer.

This is true, Dear Ones; perfection for the Fantasy will be a state of 'lack of fear'. Under these conditions, Dear Hearts, love will be uppermost within the experience.

Whilst the Light Workers are setting the groundwork, so to speak, for love and perfection to be the basis for the Earth Fantasy; those who are not yet perfect (in consciousness) will be gathering the experiences by which they will procure perfection. And what are they? We shall tell you:

Fear induced violence is the means by which all consciousness has ultimately attained perfection. Yes, Dear Ones, it has been this particular fantasy that has been of the greatest benefit to those who have already, as consciousness, attained victory.

Surprised, Dear Hearts?

Some are surprised; however, more numbers are now not surprised by this advice. Many are now consciously aware of the meaning behind our words. Yes, Dear Ones; many are now openly aware of their perfection as consciousness.

Many are now consciously aware of their mission to perfect themselves as a human experiencing. And many are overjoyed to be a part of the first wave, so to speak, of consciousness within the human form seeking and attaining a greater degree of perfection than ever before.

Our dearest is the leader of this 'new wave'. Hers has been a labour of love, devoted to the evolution of the Earth Fantasy to its magnanimous future of Love and Perfection.
